TOWN HALL SECURED FOR CHARTER DISCUSSION May 29.

The following is a public letter to The Bulletin from President Haviland regarding the next Board of Trade meeting, which takes up the proposed charter, it having been decided to meet in the town hall for this discussion:

There was a meeting of St. Joseph's Sodality Sunday afternoon, at which time two new members were elected and one application for membership was received.

A letter was received from the charter committee concerning the desire of the committee to have the proposed churter understood and it was voted to have Chairman Tirrell address the members upon the charter, the date to be left with the officers and Mr. Tirrell to arrange.

Over Road to Kitemaug. at the recent special meeting authorizing the selectmen to proceed with work preliminary to letting contracts for building a new road from the main highway between the New London turnpike and the gradually increasing settlement at and in the vicinity of Kitemaug. A petition bearing 35 signatures has been handed to First Selectmen Moses Chapman seeking for a chance to rescind the vote passed at the special meeting.

Selectman Chapman, after consultation with his fellow members of the board, has decided to call the next special meeting for Monday, May 22. The vote in favor of the new road which passed by a majority of only one does not adequately represent the sentiment of townspeople in regard to the road, it is claimed, as very many present at the meeting considered the proposition safe and did not take the trouble to register their votes.

Superintendent Richards of the New London department reported the water in Lake Koromoc to be nine inches below the spillway. This is nine incheving, anday.

At Hartford a total capacity is considerably below normal. The water commissioners state that the supply is gradually going down and if rain they wake their returns. From figures already obtained at the local postoffice it was shown that about 16 to 19 letters per minute were handled in an incoming mail of 11.090 letters and about 20 per minute in an outgoing mail of the same number.

To make a general count and timing of the mail would be a big task, anyway, but the government directions on this assignment are of such fine-tooth-comb variety as to add greatly to the detail. Every class and subdivision of mall has to be counted and timed separately and separate records made, which are added together to get the grand total.

Debate by Socialist Speakers

At the rooms of the socialist party in the Stead building, a special meeting full of interest for the thirty people who made up the audience was held on Sunday afternoon at 2,30 o'clock, with 2 debate on the programme upon the question, Resolved: That Christianity is opposed to Socialism.

Edwin Perkins Clarke was the chair-Crouch of Mystic, an evangelist, for the affirmative, and E. A. Curtis of Harttord for the negative. The debate was conducted without regularly appointed judges to give a decision, but there was a general discussion of the topic after the debaters had finished. Mr. Crouch for the affirmative developed his argument along the line of defining socialism as the public ownership and operation of the institutions for the production and the distribution of wealth, a substitution of co-operative for competitive ownership, and said that its aims were
